INTRODUCTION

This finding aid covers the gubernatorial papers of the second term of Tennessee Governor Buford Ellington, who served from 1967-1971 (first term, 1959-1963). It consists of 163 boxes of materials that consist of correspondence, subject files, proclamations, invitations, fiscal records, extraditions, renditions, photographs, audits, and requisitions.

There are no restrictions on the use of the materials and researchers may make copies of individual items for individual or scholarly use.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Governor Buford Ellington

Born in Mississippi in 1907, Ellington became a farmer and merchant, also serving as agriculture commissioner for six years under Frank Clement, and as a member of the legislature before he was elected governor in 1958. he and Clement led the Democratic party and alternated the executive chair for eighteen years. Initially a segregationist, Ellington later reversed his position. Peaceful, successful nonviolent sit-ins in Nashville were among the earliest and best organized in the nation. His terms saw constitutional changes, reorganization and reduction of state government, liberalization of liquor laws and repeal of the anti-evolution law. He died in 1972.
